Over 1,500 Delegates Expected To Attend ICA KL 2017

Last update: 01/10/2017

PETALING JAYA, Oct 1 (Bernama) -- More than 1,500 delegates from 105 countries are expected to attend the International Co-operative Alliance, ICA KL 2017 conference which Malaysia will be hosting for the first time from Nov 14-17.

Malaysian National Cooperative Movement (ANGKASA) president Datuk Abdul Fattah Abdullah said the biennial conference will see delegates from among others the United States, Brazil, United Kingdom, China and Canada.

"Through this conference, the delegates can see for themselves the development of the cooperative movement in Malaysia and explore opportunities," he told Bernama after an ANGKASA function here today.

He said Malaysia as the host would also promote on matters concerning financing what is syariah compliant and halal products.
